Two Married Men.

People are bound to have a good time when off on a holiday, as long as they have money to spend, and after many had viewed Buffalo Bill and his show in the afternoon, Friday, they sought variety and something to laugh at by going to the Odeon in the evening, when "Two Married Men" and their troubles held the boards. The audience at the theatre was, beyond all question, the largest that ever assembled under the roof and paid admission. There was a crush.

It was a patient, good-natured audience. It could not be otherwise with the laughable lines and ludicrous situations in which "Two Married Men," their wives and mothers-in-law are continually finding themselves. The company was small, but a good one in most respects, and several bright specialties helped along with the merry-making.—Evening Times, Marshalltown, Iowa, Saturday, Jan. 20th, 1900.

At Washington Opera House Saturday, Feb. 24th.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

The profit of a gold mine depends, not on the amount of rock crushed under the stamps but upon the amount of gold which can be extracted from the rock. In a similar way the value of the food which is eaten does not depend on the quantity which is taken into the stomach but upon the amount of nourishment extracted from it by the organs of nutrition and digestion. When these organs are diseased they fail to extract the nourishment in sufficient quantities to supply the needs of the several organs of the body, and these organs cannot work without nourishment. The result is heart "trouble," liver "trouble," and many another ailment. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acting on every organ of the digestive and nutritive system, restores it to health and vigor. It cures diseases remote from the stomach through the stomach in which they originated. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.
